Crusader on EU vote tells electorate to reject choice

• Jonathan Hawkins prepares his campaign bicycle for the trip

WHILE official campaign buses for the EU referendum have been trundling around the country for the last few months, a Didcot man has launched his own campaign to encourage voters to choose 'None of the above'.

Jonathan Hawkins, 57, of Lydalls Road, is promoting his 'Vote None' campaign by cycling from Edinburgh to Westminster over the next two weeks.

He believes that 'In' and 'Out' are both bad choices for the country and is urging voters to spoil their ballot papers by voting 'None of the above' in the EU Referendum on June 23.

Mr Hawkins said: "There is an alternative. If enough people spoil their ballot papers and put them in the box, it will send a clear signal to the Government that the status quo is not acceptable and Europe needs reformulating."

"This is a bad referendum with the wrong question. An 'In' vote threatens democracy by

Man, 37, is jailed for life on fatal stabbing

A 37-YEAR-OLD Abingdon man was jailed for life this week for stabbing dad-of-two Justin Skrebowski to death in the town's Poundland discount store in December last year.

Trevor Joyce, of Franklyn Close, was sentenced to life in prison with a minimum of nine years at the Old Bailey in London on Monday for the manslaughter of the 61-year-old Skrebowski with diminished responsibility.

Joyce admitted to the killing at Oxford Crown Court last month, as well as two counts of making threats to kill, one count of assault causing actual bodily harm and one count of threatening others with offensive weapons.

Investigating officer, Det Insp Stuart Blaikie, of the Major Crime unit, said: "Whilst this will never compensate for the loss of Justin, it will hopefully offer some comfort to Justin's widow

By Alex Ballinger

Gulsen and the Skrebowski family. This was a random attack on Justin, an innocent member of the public in Abingdon town centre whilst he was shopping on his wife's birthday.

"This callous incident has had a profound effect on the family in so many ways.

"I would like to thank the family for their support throughout the investigation, as well as the members of the public who provided witness statements and assisted police officers with the arrest of Joyce shortly after the incident. They have shown great courage in horrific circumstances.

"On behalf of Thames Valley Police, I would like to offer my condolences to Gulsen and the Skrebowski family, our thoughts remain with them at this incredibly difficult and sad time."

Mr Skrebowski, an art dealer of Sunnymead, Oxford, had been buying balloons for his children on December 7, 2015 - his wife Gulsen's 39th birthday.

Diminished responsibility means Joyce admits the offence but that his mental functions were diminished or impaired.

Joyce entered the Poundland store in Bury Street at about 11.20am and took a knife from the shelf. He stabbed Mr Skrebowski in the lower back. After fleeing down Bury Street, Joyce was wrestled to the ground by an off-duty police officer.

Military to help demolish plant building

MILITARY personnel and equipment are to be called in to Didcot Power Station to help recover three men missing in wreckage since the collapse of a building in February.

The military aid will be used with other agencies including police and demolition experts to bring down the remaining half of the 10-storey, 300m-long building still standing.

Police announced just after 1pm yesterday that the Home Office and Ministry of Defence had approved the deployment of the military to help in the recovery of Ken Cresswell, 57, and John Shaw, 61, both of Rotherham, and Christopher Huxtable, 34, of Swansea, who are still missing in the rubble.

Site owner RWE Npower announced last month that search efforts would be suspended because the remaining part of the boiler house was too unstable for the contractors to get any nearer than 50 metres.

Part of the boiler house of Didcot A Power Station collapsed on February 23, and the body of 53-year-old Mick Collings, of North Yorkshire, was found the same day.

A rescue mission to search the debris for the missing three men started 22 days after the collapse due to fears the rest of the building could fall.

A statement from Thames Valley Police said: "The Home Office and Ministry of Defence (MOD) have approved the development of military aid to support the ongoing multi-agency recovery operation following the partial collapse of the boiler house at Didcot A Power Station.

Shoplifters jailed

HENLEY: Two men who shoplifted bottles of alcohol from a shop in Henley Market Place have been jailed.

Robert Dee, 38, of Christchurch Road, Reading, and Tomasz Marcinkowski, 31, of Beecham Road, Reading, stole the alcohol from Wine Rack on May 16 and May 21.

Dee was sentenced to 14 weeks in prison and Marcinkowski was jailed for 20 weeks at Oxford Magistrates' Court on May 31.

They were also ordered to pay a £115 victim surcharge each.

Investigating officer PC Charlotte Owen, based at Henley Police Station, said: "I am pleased with the sentences handed out to Dee and Marcinkowski.

"This sends a clear message that shoplifting will not be tolerated, and that offenders will be prosecuted, and could face custodial sentences."

They were charged with theft from a shop on May 22.

Both pleaded guilty to the charges on May 31.

Immigration arrest by the A40

OXFORD: A woman has been detained on suspicion of immigration offences after reports someone was found in the back of a lorry in a layby on the A40 between Oxford and Wheatley.

Police were called to the scene at Forest Hill at 10.04am yesterday where the woman was detained.

Thames Valley Police spokesman Lucy Billen said: "She was taken to custody and will be subsequently transferred to the relevant authorities."

"This support has been provided following a request by the multi-agency strategic co-ordination group in line with Military Aid to Civil Authority Principles.

"Our absolute priority remains the recovery of the missing men so they can be returned to their families and to understand what caused this tragic incident.

"Specialist officers from TVP continue to support the families and are providing them with daily updates on the progress of this work."

The force said the military would work with police, RWE, contractors Brown and Mason, and demolition specialists Alford Technologies to bring down the rest of the structure "safely."

Woman left victim fatally injured at side of road Death driver sent to jail

A 28-YEAR-OLD woman driver has been jailed for more than four years after she knocked down and fatally injured a cyclist in Cholsey last June.

Maria Sutton had been drinking throughout the day on Thursday, June 4, when she

• Maria Sutton

By Alex Ballinger

collided with Graham Ruecroft, 54, in Wallingford Road as he cycled home, leaving him at the side of the road.

The court heard how Sutton reported her car stolen after the hit-and-run crash, tried to claim on her insurance and wiped her phone memory in an attempt to cover up the crime.

Sutton was sentenced to four years and one month in jail at Oxford Crown Court last Thursday for causing death while driving over the prescribed drink-drive limit and for perverting the course of justice.

Dr Ruecroft's older brother, Malcolm, who travelled from County Durham for the sentencing, told the court: "I can't explain the pain that I feel when I think of my brother. I personally feel betrayed, robbed and deprived of the future and old age that we should have been able to enjoy together.

"My father and I placed our hands on my brother's coffin and no father should have had to endure this."

Mr Ruecroft, 57, said he was "disappointed" with the sentence Sutton was given.

He added: "I can't put it into words. As far as the law is concerned, justice has been done.

"It's the sentencing guidelines that are the problem."

He has set up an online petition, calling for MPs to set harsher sentences for people who cause death by dangerous driving.

Dr Ruecroft was knocked off his bike at about 10.15pm and left at the side of the road until a member of the public drove by and found him.

He was taken to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital but died five days later on June 9.

Sutton, of Newlands Way, Cholsey, was arrested the day after the hit-and-run.

The court heard how Dr Ruecroft's partner Helen Gray had been suffering from a serious illness and had been supported by the research chemist before his death.

Mr Ruecroft said his 81-year-old father was seriously ill and cried every morning when he saw a picture of his son.

On the day of the crash, he was returning home from London by train and bike after a business meeting to set up a biofuel company.

In sentencing, Judge Peter Ross said Sutton, a mother-of-three, had reported her Kia Cee'd stolen on the night of June 4 and hidden the vehicle near her house.

He said she also attempted to claim insurance on the stolen car and tried to negotiate a payout with a claims investigator.

The court heard from Judge Ross that police confiscated Sutton's phone after their suspicions were raised. Sutton then used an iPad linked to the phone to wipe the memory in an attempt to hide the crime.

Sutton wrote a letter of apology that was read out in court.

It said: "Every day I relive that night. I'm sorry for what I've done."

Mr Ruecroft said the apology was "too little too late."

Defending Sutton, Lucy Tapper said she had suffered abuse in the past and had attempted to commit suicide before and after the crash. After the crash, she had also been diagnosed with mental-health problems.

Sutton was sentenced to 35 months in prison for causing death by driving without due care and attention whilst over the limit and 14 months in prison for perverting the course of justice.

She was also disqualified from driving for eight years - a ban which will start from the date of her release from prison.

approving the giving away of our country's law-making powers to Europe. None of the ordinary people have said that it's OK for Europe to make laws.

"An 'Out' vote throws out the potential of a more mature Europe in future that works for the good of its nation states."

The electrical engineer, who has lived in Didcot for 25 years, said he had been passionate about the EU for about 20 years since buying a book about the US constitution while on holiday in the United States.

"I didn't bother reading it for a few years, but when I did it just made me realise that all of this stuff about the EU is nothing new," he said.

"Neither side has been explained to us fully, and the general person on the street would not be able to tell you what the law-making process of the EU is. So for many people the choice is just a lottery.

"I find many people are quite strongly one way or the other, but the majority are still floating voters, like some of my friends who have said to me 'I'm confused about it and I think you've got a point', and I find many of them agree with me."

Jonathan left Edinburgh yesterday and will stop in cities along his 590-mile route to speak to people, wearing a T-shirt with the hashtag '#VoteNone' and his Twitter account @EUrefVoteNone, and have a number plate on his bicycle reading: "Agree? Hoot!"

He arrives at Westminster on June 21, two days before the vote. Follow his blog at www.eurefvotenone.org

Rally staged

DIDCOT: Didcot Railway Centre's second Transport Rally was held on Sunday, showcasing vintage buses and coaches of the past.

The oldest vehicles dated back to 1927 with each subsequent decade being represented, as 15 vehicles, dating from 1940, provided rides to recreate public transport services across South Oxfordshire in bygone ages.

Witness appeal

DIDCOT: Thames Valley Police is appealing for witnesses following a shed burglary in Didcot.

A shed in Synderford Close was broken into overnight between Saturday 28 and Sunday 29 May and fishing equipment and keys were stolen. Call the police on 101.

New guidelines

DIDCOT: New industry guidelines into the planning, preparation and use of explosives in demolition are to be published in the wake of the Didcot Power Station collapse.

The National Federation of Demolition Contractors will lead the project after being asked to by the Health and Safety Executive. The document will be ready for publication later this year.

The collapse happened while demolition was being carried out, leaving one worker dead and three unaccounted for.

Raring to throw!

FOUR lucky people have been selected for the royal bun-throwing ceremony in Abingdon on Saturday to celebrate the Queen's 90th birthday.

They were chosen for the traditional event - which will see 4,500 buns thrown from the roof of County Hall - at the Bun Throwing World Championships held at Abingdon Vale Cricket Club last weekend.

Winner of the men's competition Duncan Au threw a whopping 156ft 4in, while Christiane Van Colie took home the senior women's trophy with a throw of 87ft 6in. The contest's junior winners were Josh Hermon and Rebecca Rogers.

A pupil at John Mason School Josh, 17, from Abingdon, said: "It was a lot of fun. When I threw it, it went quite far, but I didn't think I'd win because my throw was quite early on, but nobody managed to beat it!"

"The only time I've been involved before is with the cadets carrying all of the buns up the stairs, so I'm looking forward to taking part this year."

Leader of Abingdon Town Council Mike Badcock said of Monday's Championships: "It was a great bit of fun and the weather was blowing the buns all over the place!"

"The only thing we can't control on Saturday is the weather! Last year, we had some awful rain but the streets were still packed - nothing will stop the bun throwing!"

Abingdon Town Band and the Abingdon Traditional Morris Dancers will both perform ahead of Abingdon Town Council's procession to County Hall for verses of Happy Birthday and the National Anthem at 6.30pm.

Roads in the town centre will close at 5pm ahead of the ceremony. The first of the buns will be thrown at 7pm, with bun-catchers advised to arrive well ahead of the start time.

Organiser Steve Rich also said: "It's a fantastic event to have so many people tightly packed in the square catching buns with the church bells ringing out at the same time. It's a great atmosphere."

The buns are being donated by sponsors Tesco. The Vale of White Horse District Council is also supporting the event with a grant from its fund for the Queen's 90th Birthday celebrations.

Flats plan put in for ex-store site

A PLANNING application to demolish Wallingford's derelict former Waitrose supermarket and build retirement flats and two shops was filed with South Oxfordshire District Council on Friday.

Wallingford-based Beechcroft Developments submitted the plans for 13 to 16 St Martin's Street following a public consultation in March.

The building has been empty for 11 years since Waitrose moved to its current base about 150m down the road to the junction with High Street.

The application states the plans aim to "end a long period of neglect and uncertainty for this important site in and off St Martin's Street".

It adds: "To the front of the application site an altogether more modest and intimate mass and scale are called for to reflect the narrowness of streetscape, and repair some of the design damage of less perceptive times."

The proposal includes one one-bed and 21 two-bed flats for over-55s on the first, second and third floors, and two ground-floor retail units.

A covered car park would also have 22 parking spaces for the flats and one each for the retail units.

A raised garden and terrace would also be built on the first floor.

During a consultation at the Regal Centre on March 11, residents and town councillors backed plans to revive the site. However, some raised concerns about traffic and overlooking.

A target decision date for council officers to decide whether to recommend the plans be approved or rejected has been set as September 2.

Flag-raising day

OXON: Residents of Oxfordshire can attend a special flag-raising ceremony at Oxford Castle to honour the work of the armed forces on Monday, June 20.

It will be hoisted at 11am and bring together members of bases including RAF Brize Norton, Bicester Garrison, Dalton Barracks in Abingdon, and Shrivenham Station as well as dignitaries.

The ceremony is being held before Armed Forces Day on Saturday, June 25.

Rugby research

OXON: Ex-England international rugby stars are being recruited for a major Oxford scientific study examining possible long-term side effects of the game on brain health.

It will focus on the possible link between a history of concussion and neurodegenerative disease in former rugby players.

Oxford University is collaborating with the Rugby Football Union and four other institutions to conduct the research.

The project also aims find out more about the potential medium and long-term neurocognitive risks of playing rugby.

Any former rugby player who wants to take part in this study can email therugbystudy@ndorms.ox.ac.uk.

Consumer champions Which? have now joined the thousands of customers who recognise that Cloudy2Clear Windows really are a business that you can TRUST. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has received the coveted 'Which Trusted Trader' status after going through a rigorous accreditation process entirely focussed on customer service.

Group Managing Director Marcus McGee believes that Which? have endorsed Cloudy2Clear's long standing company policy of delivering the highest standards possible at all times. "Our service is simple. If your double glazing has misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Whilst a number of tradespeople perhaps don't focus on customer care as much as they should do, we make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle.

Locally Cloudy2Clear service the Oxfordshire area from their local depots and manager James Miller agrees that this approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated as both my customers and, obviously a body as nationally important as Which? now recognise."

Friends air sadness about Ali's passing

CLOSE friends from Abingdon of legendary boxer Muhammad Ali have paid emotional tributes to The Greatest after his death last Friday, aged 74.

Bare-knuckle boxing champion Paddy Monaghan befriended Ali in the 1960s and

By Alex Ballinger

The People's Champion visited the town more than 20 times before his death.

Now Mr Monaghan's daughter Belinda has told of her heartache at the loss of her dad's close friend.

Miss Monaghan, who first met Ali when she was 12 months old, said: "When I found out, I just burst into tears. We had a feeling it was coming. My family was updated every other hour.

"It was a major shock. It was very sad. He was a close friend."

Ali first met Mr Monaghan when the Abingdon resident launched a petition to have the champion's boxing licence reinstated after he was banned from the sport for three years for refusing to be drafted into the US army during the Vietnam War.

Mr Monaghan's petition sparked an ongoing friendship that lasted until Ali's death last weekend. He had been suffering from a respiratory illness, complicated by his long battle with Parkinson's disease.

Miss Monaghan, a full-time mother of four children, said: "My dad has taken it very hard. The whole world has.

"[Ali] was really fun. Always joking about. Even today I woke up and there were still tears. He was amazing."

Mr Monaghan, 73, now lives in Sutton Courtenay.

In 2013, he published a book called Street Fighting Man, which featured a heartfelt foreword from the former three-time world heavyweight champion.

Ali, who was born Cassius Clay, said: "Friendship is a word I do not use lightly. Paddy Monaghan and I have been friends since the early 1960s.

"Not only is Paddy my good friend, he is my main man over there in Great Britain. From this man, from that little town in England, came the title 'The People's Champ.'

Ali was born in Louisville, Kentucky, in 1942 and went on to become one of the most recognisable men in the world.

Rob Southey lived in Saxon Road, Abingdon in 1974 when Ali first visited the town.

The 54-year-old said: "It was brilliant. Everyone was there.

"Everyone loved him.

"He's always been the best boxer in the whole world. No one moved like Ali."

Ali died in hospital in Phoenix, Arizona, and funeral will be held in Louisville tomorrow.

Police launch campaign on drink-driving

THAMES Valley Police have launched their summer campaign to tackle drink-and drug-driving in the region.

The campaign started on Monday, and will run throughout June and July to coincide with the Euro 2016 championships.

It comes after 325 people were arrested across the Thames Valley in the force's campaign over the Christmas period.

Sgt Chris Appleby, from the Roads Policing Department, said: "Driving after drinking is a major cause of death and injury on our roads.

"Alcohol impairs many of the functions necessary for safe driving and the risk of death or injury rapidly increases with alcohol consumption, so it's not worth the risk."

Sgt Appleby added: "This campaign will draw drivers' attention to the risks posed by using drink or drugs while in control of a vehicle and the serious penalties which they will face when they are caught."

Drink or drug drivers can be fined up to £5,000, receive a prison sentence of up to six months and a mandatory disqualification of 12 months, as well as three to 11 points on their licence.

Bicester launches a bid to become healthy new town

BICESTER is hoping to get a new title to add to its list of accolades – after it was shortlisted as a healthy town.

Work has started to create the country's first eco town, largest self-build estate and the Bicester Garden Town designation.

Now Cherwell District Council is hoping Bicester will join NHS England's Healthy New Town Programme (HNT).

The idea is to create housing estates and infrastructure to promote healthy lifestyles, such as better cycle and walkways and multi-activity open space.

By Samantha McGregor

The NHS programme will look at how technology can play a role in healthcare as well as working with community groups, councils and developers.

This week Cherwell's executive agreed £20,000 of funding for the project.

Council leader Barry Wood said: "The cutting-edge Eco Town at North West Bicester has been designed to catalyse healthy living, with high levels of green space and safe, integrated walking and cycling paths.

"Participating in the HNT Programme is a way of future-proofing Bicester's new communities against the challenges the 21st Century will pose to human health, whether in terms of obesity, dementia or digital lifestyles. We can make Bicester a national leader in the delivery of integrated healthy living."

The report said Bicester was set to double in size, with 13,000 homes set to be built over the next 30 years.

It came as Grayline Coaches yesterday launched a new low-emission bus service between, Elmsbrook, in North West Bicester, built by A2Dominion, to the town centre and Bicester Village Station.

It will be free for the first six weeks to encourage people to ditch their cars, and will operate from 6.30am to 7.30pm Monday to Friday, and 8am to 6pm on Saturdays.

Because the route is registered with the Traffic Commissioners as a hail-and-ride service, it can stop to pick up passengers or drop them off anywhere along the route.

Students urged to use vote

FORMER Liberal Democrat leader Paddy Ashdown spoke to students at Wadham College, Oxford, on Monday night, urging them to register for the EU referendum.

The former Marines officer called the debate 'the fight of a generation' which was 'far from over' in his address to the Oxford University's Liberal Democrat Society.

Speaking of his experiences in Bosnia and Herzegovina, Ashdown also lauded the EU as the 'greatest ever peace-keeping organisation', and claimed that a Brexit would be 'an act of historic folly'.

"If you do back Brexit then who are you going to believe about the outcome – Boris Johnson pretending to lead some anti-establishment revolt, or every one of the experts who forecasts that Britain will suffer grievously if we leave the EU?

"That's not scaremongering, it is fact. They cannot all be wrong. It's gambling with the future of our country."

He also mocked the Leave campaign's sovereignty argument, calling it an 'illusory sense of sovereignty'.

Speaking on the day Lib Dem leader Tim Farron spoke alongside other Remain leaders, Mr Ashdown said: "I think it should be a cross party issue, and I like to see politicians working together."

Self-build show

PEOPLE interested in building their own home or buying a plot of land at the new Graven Hill scheme at Bicester can go along to the first Oxfordshire Build it Live show.

On June 11 and 12, from 9.30am to 5pm, the exhibition will be at Bicester Heritage, Buckingham Road, with more than 100 stands and seminars.

Part of the show will be dedicated to the Graven Hill Village Development where architectural designer and TV presenter Charlie Luxton will be making a guest appearance.

Ticket holders will also have a chance to tour the Graven Hill development site, which has planning approval for 1,900 self-build homes. Buses will leave every hour.

Oxfordshire Guardian readers can take advantage of a buy-one-get-one-free offer on tickets by using the code OXG16 when viewing the website: builditlive.co.uk

Police drug raids

BICESTER: Police carried out drugs raids at two properties in Bicester.

The first took place in East Street where a "large amount of Cannabis" was seized by officers on June 2.

A second raid took place at Bure Park on June 3. No detail was given on whether drugs were found at the property.

Caravan stolen

HARWELL: A caravan was stolen from a home overnight between Thursday and Friday last week.

It is the third caravan to be stolen after two others were taken overnight between last Wednesday and Thursday from East Hendred.

The latest one stolen is described as a white Coaching VIP caravan and was stolen from the rear garden of a property in The Park.

Four people arrested after Co-op store raids

THREE people from Didcot and a fourth with no fixed address have been arrested after two Co-op stores were robbed by armed suspects over the weekend.

The first incident happened last Friday night when a man entered the shop in the Ladygrove Local Centre in Mersey Way, Didcot, wielding what appeared to be a gun.

He threatened staff and demanded money and tobacco at about 8.30pm before placing the items in a shopping bag and leaving the store.

The second incident happened at about 7.35pm on Sunday when a man entered the Co-op in Besselsleigh Road, Wootton, carrying a hammer.

He went behind the till and took tobacco, before telling staff to open the till and taking cash.

Two women, aged 37 and 28, both from Didcot, were arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and have been bailed until July 18. A 36-year-old man from Didcot was also arrested on Sunday on suspicion of robbery and has been bailed until the same date.

Police also arrested a 31-year-old man, of no fixed address, on Monday. He was in police custody as the Oxfordshire Guardian went to press.

Speaking about the Wootton robbery, Detective Inspector Larry Johnson, said: "It was fortunate that nobody was hurt during the incident."

"However, it was still very distressing for the staff in the shop at the time."

"It took place during the early evening and so there would have been lots of people around and we would like to hear from anyone who saw anything in connection with the incident."

The offender ran out of the shop to a grey Vauxhall Zafira, parked near the community centre. He was then driven by a female driver towards Abingdon.

Police have described the offender as being a white man, between 5ft 8ins and 6ft tall.

He was wearing a white decorator's suit with the hood pulled up, a paint mask and black sunglasses.

The officer investigating the Didcot incident, Detective Constable Arran Cliff, said: "Fortunately no-one was hurt during the incident, however it was a frightening experience for those who were in the store."

"People in the community may notice an increased presence of officers in the area."

The Didcot offender is described as being white, wearing a beanie-style hat, sunglasses and navy-coloured clothing.

Police said on Monday a 27-year-old man also arrested on Sunday has been released without any further action.

Anyone with information is asked to call police on 101.

Woman jailed for two thefts

A 28-YEAR-OLD Banbury woman has been jailed for nine months after stealing cash from two people who tried to help her.

Hayley Stout, of Boxhedge Road West, Banbury, earlier admitted two counts of theft at Oxford Crown Court. She was sentenced at Reading Crown Court on Thursday, May 26.

Police said the first incident took place in Orchard Way, Banbury, in October 2015. Stout approached an elderly man near his home and said she was feeling unwell and wanted a glass of water.

He allowed her into his home and while alone she stole a "large amount of cash".

The following month between midnight and 1am, Stout approached a 51-year-old man outside a shop in the town centre and asked for a cigarette.

Stout befriended him and accepted the offer of a warm drink in his canal boat. However, once inside, she stole his wallet while he was making a drink and then fled.

Det Con Darren Pomroy said: "This case is a reminder to us all about the dangers of letting strangers into our properties. If the person is unknown then residents should have no reservations on shutting/ locking the door on strangers."

Technicolour fun gives boost to city's hospice

ALMOST 1,000 people helped paint Oxford a veritable rainbow of colours on Saturday to raise money for a children and young person's hospice in the city.

The Rainbow Run, which is now in its third year, saw 895 people of all ages pelted with colourful powder paint in aid of Helen and Douglas House in Magdalen Road.

By Alex Ballinger

Taking part this year was the face of the Rainbow Run 2016, Jack Smith, of Bampton.

The 12-year-old has cerebral palsy and epilepsy, and visits the hospice for respite care.

Jack's mum Jane said: "It was absolutely wonderful. This is our way of giving something back, which is important to us. It's really good fun."

"For Jack, Helen House is somewhere he can go and do something a bit different. For us, as his parents, it is knowing that at the end of the day, there is somewhere we can go, someone who can take over, and that is quite big actually because there is no-one else."

The run, which was held at Cutteslowe Park, has raised more than £23,000 since it was launched - and money from this year's event is still pouring in.

A 28-strong 'Team Thomas' took part in memory of youngster Thomas Laurie, of Bicester, who died at the hospice in 2014, aged just nine.

Thomas suffered from a rare condition called Cockayne Syndrom, which causes premature ageing.

His mum Cath said: "We know how important it is for families still going through tough times.

"It's been two years since he died and we are still very much supported by Helen and Douglas

House."

TALL TREES
A CARING HOMES RESIDENCE

Understanding dementia

Specialist care focused on individual needs, in a safe and friendly home

Did you know that there are more than 200 different forms of dementia, or that there are 850,000 people living with dementia in the UK and a further 225,000 will develop the condition this year?

At Tall Trees, we provide personalised dementia care – as well as nursing and residential care – for elderly people in a safe and friendly home.

The entire team working at Tall Trees receives our unique dementia training, 'Living in My World', so that they have an understanding of the condition and how to make a positive impact on the people in our care living with dementia. We are part of Caring Homes, the only care organisation in the UK to be awarded City & Guilds accreditation - a globally recognised benchmark of quality for in-house training. We believe that everyone, irrespective of their position within the home, should possess this knowledge as everyone will have a moment of connection with a resident.

Our approach is focused on meeting people's individual requirements with dignity and respect. Surrounding everyone with familiarity, security and stimulation, we make our residents' experience with us as fulfilling as it can be.

Home Manager,
Michelle Little

Tall Trees Home Manager, Michelle Little, says: "I firmly believe in giving each resident person-centred care so that their life with us has stimulation and purpose. We speak to their families at length and ask about what they used to enjoy, what they did for a living, and a myriad other questions. We then use this knowledge as a trigger point to connect and engage with each person, from singing or gardening together to a hand massage."

Living in My World assists us to communicate more effectively with people living with dementia, using body language as well as carefully-chosen words to aid our residents' understanding. Building relationships with residents, learning about their lives and empathising with them means we can help to ease their frustrations. In turn, we support family members to sustain an ongoing positive relationship with their loved one.

For more information on Tall Trees or to arrange a visit with Michelle Little, Home Manager, please call 0808 223 5401 or visit caringhomes.org/tall-trees.

Police reveal shocking video after man jailed for Drayton ram-raid

• A shot of Healey's car from the police footage

AN Oxford man has been jailed for almost three years after he ram-raided a village post office and led police on a 15-mile chase earlier this month.

Stuart Healey, of Botley Road, was sentenced to two years and 10 months in prison at Oxford Crown Court last Tuesday for burglary and driving offences.

Police released a shocking video of the chase online, which showed Healey speeding through Abingdon and driving along the wrong side of a dual carriageway near Witney.

At about 3am on May 5, Healey smashed his car into the front of a post office in Drayton Road, Drayton, causing major damage.

The 35-year-old stole a small amount of alcohol from the shop and drove away from the scene, but was pursued by police before being arrested in

By Alex Ballinger

Ducklington, Thames Valley Police released the video of the chase on Friday.

Investigating officer, PC Mark Allmond, said: "Healey's actions were incredibly dangerous and it is fortunate that no-one was injured as a result of his thoughtless and reckless behaviour.

"A number of roads policing officers were involved in the pursuit of Healey and I would like to thank them for their efforts to stop Healey before

Grants to improve river

THE second phase of a project to improve the River Cherwell in Oxfordshire, said: "Spiceball Park, which is owned by Banbury Town Council, is a well-used amenity, but until we will start this summer thanks to grants of more than £190,000. The Wild Banbury project will focus on Spiceball Park and the Hanwell Brook wetland. Groups can get involved by creating habitats for wildlife by digging out ponds, clearing scrub and planting flowers.

Among the grants was £93,300 from the Heritage Lottery Fund, £64,000 from Banbury Town Council, £4,000 from Cherwell District Council and £27,295 from Grundon.

Over the past 18 months, the Cherwell has been re-landscaped with new banks planted with native wild flowers, bridges and benches.

Neil Clennell, Berkshire, Buckinghamshire and Oxfordshire Wildlife Trust's director of conservation and education

he hurt himself or an innocent member of the public."

Healey pleaded guilty to one count of burglary, one count of assaulting a police officer. He drink-driving, one count of dangerous driving and one count of for two years.

Sports club plan wins approval

PLANS to demolish and rebuild Thame Cricket Club's pavilion have been given the green light.

A joint planning application by Thame Town Cricket Club and Thame Town Council has been approved by South Oxfordshire District Council.

The pavilion will be demolished and replaced by a new "fit for purpose" building with modern facilities.

The two-storey clubhouse will have a kitchen, bar and function room on both floors, storage rooms, an office, changing rooms and a viewing terrace.

The footprint of the building would be slightly bigger than the current one and will have stone and timber cladding to ensure it is in keeping with neighbouring properties.

A net area and service yard are included in the proposal, and the car park would be redesigned to provide 45 spaces and 20 cycle spaces.

The club, which has more than 200 members, moved to the Church Meadow site in 1975 and the clubhouse was created out of both agricultural land and derelict farm buildings.

By Samantha McGregor

Work is expected to take place in winter of 2017 ready for the start of the 2018 cricket season.

Thame Town Council is funding the development to the tune of £120,000 and is seeking a further £150,000 from cash allocated to sports provision in the town by South Oxfordshire District Council.

Matt Swain, club vice-chairman, said "We are delighted with the positive response from SODC and can't thank Thame Town Council and Holland & Green enough for their support to help us get this project off the ground.

"It will make a huge difference, not just to the members of the cricket, hockey and netball clubs but the broader community of Thame, who will be able to enjoy the facility in the heart of town at one of the most idyllic settings that Oxfordshire has to offer.

"We are a charitable organisation run by volunteers who have the club's best interest at heart in everything we do."

"We have worked really hard over the last few years to develop the club and make it something that more and more people can enjoy."

• Matt Swain, the club's vice-chairman in action

OXFORDSHIRE'S fire fighters have issued a warning to the county's boat owners about fire prevention as part of Boat Safety Week last week.

The fire service said 30 boaters had been killed in the last 30 years by fires and another 30 had lost their lives to carbon monoxide poisoning.

Boat Safety Week ran from last Monday until Sunday.

Station manager for Oxfordshire County Council Fire and Rescue Service, Chris Barber, said: "The message is that owners should understand the risks, make regular, basic checks, and follow their engine and appliance operating guidelines as the essential steps to deal with the fire and carbon monoxide threat."

Vehicle research

OXON: A technology company in Oxfordshire has been granted £233,000 to make vehicles drive more efficiently in the future to cut carbon dioxide emissions.

The money will fund a team of scientists from Oxford Advanced Surfaces, based at Begbroke Science Park in Yarnton, to find out how next-generation vehicles can be made lighter with more advanced materials.

It was awarded the grant by Innovate UK, a Government-affiliated body tasked with discovering science and technology innovations to grow the UK economy.

Oxford Advanced Surfaces will be conducting a feasibility study with the University of Manchester to develop new surface treatments that can be applied to recycled carbon fibre to produce new lightweight composites for use in the automotive industry.

House closed

DIDCOT: Police have banned anyone from entering a Didcot home for three months after complaints were raised about it being used for criminal activity.

The allegations include the house in Abbot Road having been used for drug supply and other crimes.

Thames Valley Police was granted a closure order at Oxford Magistrates' Court last Thursday, June 2.

The order includes the occupants and was issued by the court under the Anti-Social Behaviour, Crime and Policing Act 2014. Inspector Mark Harling, Thames Valley Police's neighbourhood policing team, said: "This address was the subject of numerous complaints. This closure notice will provide some well-needed respite for residents in the immediate area."

Permits go online

OXON: Residents renewing or applying for parking permits now have to do so online after the walk-in parking shop in Oxford run by Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) shut.

The base in Speedwell Street closed on May 31 for all services to move online.

People now have to visit www.oxfordshire.gov.uk/parking from this month or call 0845 310111 for help.

Former mayor defends Hitler comments at Oxford Union

THE former Mayor of London and prominent Labour Party figure Ken Livingstone defended comments he made about Hitler and Zionism while speaking at the Oxford Union last week.

Mr Livingstone was suspended from the Labour Party amid a spate of high-profile incidents of alleged anti-Semitism in the party, after he said Adolf Hitler had supported Zionism.

Speaking at the famous debating chamber in Oxford last Wednesday, the 70-year-old compared his comments to saying "1+1=2".

He said: "This whole anti-Semitic

By Alex Ballinger

tism thing is blown out of proportion to smear Jeremy Corbyn.

"I've been in the Labour Party for 47 years, I can't remember an anti-Semitic comment in the Labour Party."

"Criticising a government is not the same as anti-Semitism, these issues should not be conflated."

Mr Livingstone was suspended from the party after he commented on the suspension of Labour MP

Naz Shah for a Facebook post she made before she was elected in 2015, in which she said Israeli Jewish people should be resettled in the United States.

In an interview with BBC Radio London, Mr Livingstone said: "There's been a very well-orchestrated campaign by the Israel lobby to smear anybody who criticises Israeli policy as anti-Semitic.

"When Hitler won his election in 1932 his policy then was that Jews should be moved to Israel. He was supporting Zionism before he went mad and ended up killing six million Jews."

His comments led to calls for him to be suspended by the party, and led to conflict with fellow Labour MP John Mann.

Mr Livingstone served as MP for Brent East in London between 1987 and 2001 and as Mayor of London from 2000 to 2008.

Speaking about the leader of the Labour Party Jeremy Corbyn, Mr Livingstone said: "You won't have read much about Jeremy Corbyn's economic policy as the media is more interested in his clothes.

"[He] will connect with the people. We just need to focus on the economy. As a leader, if you don't sort out your economy, you'll fall pretty fast."

Purse thief suspect

BANBURY: Police have released CCTV footage of a man who is suspected of stealing an elderly woman's purse.

The woman believes her purse was stolen from her handbag as she walked from McColls, in High Street, towards Castle Quay, between 10.40am and 11am, on Saturday, May 28.

Her purse contained cash and a debit card which the thief attempted to use minutes later at the cashpoint at Barclays Bank.

PC Robert Kelly said: "The victim has been left feeling very shaken and vulnerable since the incident so it is vital we are able to get some answers."

Anyone with information should contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers anonymously on 0800 555 111.

Buses set to stop

THAME: Four routes run by Vale Travel bus services in Thame are expected to be stopped from July 20.

The operator has told Thame Town Council it cannot afford to run the 120/121/123 and 124 services without a subsidy.

The move comes after Oxfordshire County Council cut bus subsidies across the county. The Carousel Link 40 and Arriva 280 bus services will continue unchanged.

Work on college's £13.5m library gets under way

An artist's impression of the new library

WORK is under way on a new £13.5 million library and study centre at St John's College in Oxford.

The facility in St Giles is being built by Wantage-based developers Stepnell and is set to be finished at the end of next year.

British artist Susanna Heron will create an engraving in the stone-work of the study centre.

Principal bursar at the college, Professor Andrew Parker, said: "The college is delighted to be working with this experienced team on this development.

"A group of fellows from St John's visited the works at Magdalen in the closing phases of that project.

"We were very impressed with what we saw and we are sure that we will see the same high standards at St John's."

Stepnell's worked on the refurbishment and extension of the New Library at Magdalen College which was completed last year.

Puzzles

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

CENTRE

HE Students have the use of a plasma TV in the chill-out area with comfy sofas and chairs to relax in, a seating area for food and drinks and internet cafe-style bar, plus an adjoining computer suite.

Swindon College is the largest provider of Higher Education in Swindon, with a range of courses at Degree Level.

At Swindon College more students are seeing the benefits of studying at a local college that fits in with their work and family commitments.

As well as lower fees, you could benefit from smaller class sizes with dedicated tutors, allowing more individual support. We have knowledgeable library staff who can help with researching and referencing and a dedicated Higher Education Student Centre, with study spaces and a social area.

All of our programmes are designed with employment in mind and link directly back to the workplace. On successful completion of your course, you'll have the opportunity to don a gown and mortar board for the official Graduation Ceremony.

Did you know that even if you have no or few academic qualifications, but would like to proceed to a degree course or on to professional training you can do an Access Diploma course. The course is studied full time over one academic year and includes subjects necessary for successful completion of the Diploma and entry to higher level study.

Animals in need day

FOR the first time ever, this year, Sunshine Cat Rescue will host an animals in need day at Shipton-under-Wychwood on the 16th July. The idea is to have as many animal charity's as possible together in one place and make it a fun family day for everyone as well as making money to help needy animals.

The day will include Crocodiles of the world, a fun dog show, lots of stalls, refreshments, face painting, and a chance to meet Charlie the cat our animals in need mascot.

This has long been a dream of mine says Lou Tyack spokesperson for Sunshine Cat Rescue, all rescues work so hard every year to help as many animals as possible and we still know we don't reach them all. My idea is to get together and see if we can help each other, by swapping ideas and helping out with space to take animals in for each other.

We would like to make a day every year for animals in need but first we need to see how this one goes!

So come along and enjoy the day and help all the animals in need.

A trip to the Vet!

TOP cat transportation tips (supplied by your vet) can be from the Oxford Cat Clinic team given a few hours before travelling if your cat suffers from travel sickness.

- Choose a carrier that is strong and secure, big enough for your cat to lie comfortably, but not fall about inside, not too big that they feel insecure. A cat loose in the car is illegal and liable to escape. Know your carrier – a struggling cat and an instruction manual is not good!
- One carrier one cat! Even the best of friends fall out if stressed.
- Top loading carriers are easier to use. A removable top section allows your cat to sit in the familiar bottom half during the vet examination.
- A plastic or wire carrier is easier to clean should your cat have a toileting mishap! Put something absorbent at the bottom, just in case
- Young cats - have the carrier out in plain view as a place to sleep, have treats etc. Older cats associate carriers with bad experiences. Don't keep it hidden away, its sudden appearance can trigger anxiety and panic.

REMEMBER!
Cats read minds... they detect our tension and anxiety! Leave plenty of time, remain calm!
Your first attempt is your best chance.

Roll along to festival

ONE of the world's leading Rolling Stones tribute bands will be headlining at Watlington's very own Beacon Festival.

Not The Rolling Stones will be taking to the stage at the music extravaganza at Watlington Hill Farm on Saturday,

•Laurence Whiteley in action

By James Richings

June 17, and Sunday, June 18, along with many other groups performing classic and original numbers.

For Not The Rolling Stones member Laurence Whiteley, who portrays Mick Taylor in the band, the chance to headline at one of Oxfordshire's many festivals was an opportunity too good to turn down.

"A performance is always better when the audience enjoy and appreciate what we are doing," Laurence told the Oxfordshire Guardian. "We feed off the energy they generate and it's actually easier to play better when there's a great atmosphere and the crowd are enjoying what we do."

"We love and appreciate what The Stones do and we love making those songs come alive for an audience, and hopefully create the illusion of the real thing, but we are, after all, called NOT the Rolling Stones!"

The four friends have been together for nearly a decade and will perform on the Saturday, with the group showcasing tunes such as 'Not Fade Away', 'I Can't Get No (Satisfaction) and,

'Jumping Jack Flash' at the fourth Beacon Festival.

The band's appearance at the festival is just one of many they will be making throughout the year.

After their gig in Oxfordshire, the four friends will then move on to play in Hull, Wiltshire, Cannock and France, among others.

And even if Laurence and the gang are not performing their own tracks on the night, they still receive a warm reception worthy of an established band.

"All we can do is make it the best it can be and, of course, we hope that people appreciate it and want to see the band," Laurence said.

"For me, success is just a by-product of being driven to do something well that you are passionate about."

He added: "The most fun we had was probably playing for a private (and rather wealthy) client in Naples who flew us all out there, provided wonderful food, all our musical instruments, an amazing night of playing and partying with the rich and beautiful people of Naples - and paid us for the pleasure!

"Not bad, not bad at all."

Carlene plays church gig

WHEN your stepfather is country music legend Johnny Cash, you grab his advice with both hands.

And that's exactly what singer-songwriter Carlene Carter did as she became one of the best in the music business.

Carlene is gearing up for a gig at St Barnabas Church in Jericho, Oxford, on Friday, June 10.

The 60-year-old will be performing tracks from her latest album, 'Carter Girl' and telling stories about being a member of the famous Carter family that has produced some of the finest American musicians dating back to the 1800s.

The family has produced such stars as June, Sara and A P Carter.

And Carlene insisted that being a singer-songwriter was the only job she ever wanted.

"All my life, I wanted to grow up and be a 'Carter Girl'", she told the Oxfordshire Guardian. "I love music."

"I studied it, fell in love with song writing and once I started writing there was nothing else for me."

Born to A P and June Carter (June would later change her name to June Carter Cash after she married Johnny Cash in 1968), Carlene went on to become a popular performer on the country music circuit. She has released 10 albums and 27 singles as well as touring worldwide with musicians such as John Mellencamp.

By James Richings

Carlene revealed to the Guardian that it was a little piece of advice she received when she first started her music career that inspired her to record her latest album.

"I was told at a very young age that some day it would be my responsibility to carry on the music of my family, so I always intended to make this album and it finally felt like the right time to do it," Carlene said.

"Also, Johnny Cash was loving, kind, generous of spirit and very wise."

"He was the best and I loved him so very much!"

"I loved singing, 'Jackson' with him and from time to time over the years when my mom wasn't feeling well, he would call me to come out on the road to sing for momma."

"It was amazing."

June Carter died at the age of 73 on May 15, 2003, with Johnny Cash passing away on September 12 the same year.

The Hart Street gig starts at 7.30pm and tickets cost £16.50.

ENTERTAINMENT & LISTINGS

Boy band member to play drag queen

IN 1994, actors Terence Stamp, Hugo Weaving and Guy Pearce portrayed drag queens in the Oscar-nominated movie, 'The Adventures of Priscilla, Queen of the Desert'.

Now, 22 years later, the comedy drama's legacy has moved on to the stage as 'Priscilla, Queen of the Desert' makes its way to the New Theatre, Oxford.

Its run of eight performances at the George Street venue from Monday, June 13, to Saturday, June 18, will see boy band Blue member Duncan James portray the character Anthony "Tick" Belrose, also known by 'her' drag name, Mitzi Mitosis.

And with the show ending its 10-month tour at the New Theatre, Duncan hopes he can give the musical a great send-off.

"I just love the reaction you get at the end of the show where you see the standing ovations," the 38-year-old told the Oxfordshire Guardian.

"You take the audience away from their everyday life on a journey,

By James Richings

where for two hours they are on a rollercoaster of emotions and, as an actor, I helped to create that rollercoaster.

"And, as an actor, you feel rewarded because you've given the audience a great show."

"You have given them great value for money and you've taken them on a journey with you."

The film focuses on three drag queens who climb aboard a bus, called 'Priscilla', as they make their way from Sydney to Alice Springs for a four-week run at a popular casino.

However, during their road trip, the trio find themselves meeting people from all different walks of life, which sees them gain fans and praise, whilst also getting abused both mentally and physically.

Both the negative and positive experiences give the trio new perspectives in life.

Duncan is hoping that as well as enjoying the show, it will help them understand that homophobia is very much still an issue in today's society.

"It tackles a lot of subjects based on sexuality and acceptance which is filled with numerous jukebox hits and dance floor tunes along with amazing costumes that make the story so fabulous and wonderful," Duncan said.

He added: "Over the last 15 years since Blue started, which was in May 2001, I'm very proud that I have constantly worked.

"I've never been without work and I've always worked within this industry."

"I'm very proud that I have had the opportunity to do so much such as presenting the National Lottery, going on Dancing on Ice, being in musical theatre, performing with musicians like Stevie Wonder and Elton John, win BRIT awards, travel the world and I'm not done yet."

Tickets for the show cost from £10 to £42.50.

PLANTEC

These three fabulous young musicians create music full of energy, Breton roots and new technology. You have acoustic guitar, fantastic Bombarde (Breton clarinet/shawm type instrument) and great loops and samples - all played live. With eight studio albums behind them, playing to huge audiences around Brittany and the rest of France, these long-time musical innovators are heading to Cornerstone. This new Celtic style of electro-folk rock combined with an incredible stage energy means their finely crafted compositions are truly infectious.

THINK NO EVIL OF US: MY LIFE WITH KENNETH WILLIAMS

This classic one-man show unlocks the character of one of Britain's best-loved entertainers. In this thrilling and hilarious tour de force, we see Kenneth Williams at his funniest – and his most badly behaved. David Benson's uncanny impersonation was also heard in the acclaimed BBC Radio 4 series, 'The Private World of Kenneth Williams'. Following its Fringe debut at the Edinburgh Festival in 1996, 'Think No Evil Of Us' played in the West End. Now this strictly limited twentieth anniversary tour sees the updated version come to Cornerstone. Age guide: 12+

OUT OF THE BLUE

One of the country's leading a cappella groups and Oxford's premier all-male ensemble, Out of the Blue will captivate you with their unbeatable mixture of vibrant vocals, outrageously unprofessional choreography and often unintentional comedy. Known for their viral video hits, with more than 13 million views on YouTube, Out of the Blue has also performed on the West End and on Broadway.

Nina Simone, Black Is the Color of My Voice follows a successful jazz singer and civil rights activist seeking redemption after the untimely death of her father. She reflects on the journey that took her from a young piano prodigy destined for a life in the service of the church, to a renowned jazz vocalist at the forefront of the Civil Rights Movement.

JACQUI DANKWORTH

This year is the 400th anniversary of Shakespeare's death. Jacqui thought it would be most appropriate, therefore, to visit the musical settings of Shakespeare's poetry inspired by, and taken from, the seminal 1964 album Shakespeare and All That Jazz composed by her late father, Sir John Dankworth, for her mother, Dame Cleo Laine. A great evening from one of the jazz greats.

New Vauxhall Astra worth a look

WHEN you think about buying a new car, you need to consider quite a few things before you decide.

For instance, is it fuel efficient? Does it have a DAB radio? Does it come with plenty of space?

Of course, these are just a few of the things that go through a car buyer's mind – including what will it look like on your driveway and what will your neighbours think?

Well, for once, I am going to give you a few reasons to consider why I think you should buy the new Vauxhall Astra over one rival, the Volkswagen Golf.

Engine:

The 1.0-litre ecoFLEX Direct Injection Turbo engine is a three-cylinder petrol engine that produces 105PS and a maximum torque of 170Nm, making it incredibly good at getting a move on quickly.

0-60mph is in at about 10 seconds and if you add in the start/stop system and the fact it has low-rolling-resistance tyres it will at a push return over 60mpg – it will honest! Maximum speed is also up at 124mph.

By Anthony Yates

On the road:

The new Astra handles well – but I feel it is not as much fun to drive as the VW Golf and although the steering is direct which is one better than the Golf, the Astra still feels much too heavy for my liking.

Saying that, grip levels are good and the Astra has no problem dealing with our poor road network of potholes and uneven surfaces.

Inside:

The interior is fresh and all the buttons and dials are clear.

The front seats have plenty of adjustment to them and feel well made and very comfortable.

Rear leg room is also good and the boot space is fantastic.

I also like the wide boot opening – this will make stowing away a large item a doddle.

But some of the plastics do look cheap – although this is a car that was designed to be cheap to own and cheap to run.

Yes it's not as good as a Kia's interior, but it's as good as what VW have come up with in the Golf.

Safety:

Five out of five stars in Euro NCAPs for the new Astra and all models come with front and side airbags.

Plus, standard on all Astras is Vauxhall's stability control system that will help you stay in full control if you do happen to get into trouble.

To sum up:

As good as a VW Golf in the same like-for-like form, plus it's a better pick when it comes to price, space and equipment. Check out the Astra – it's a great buy.

Vale of White Horse
District Council

Local Plan 2031 Part 2
Call for Potential Development Sites

Do you own land in Vale of White Horse? Vale of White Horse District Council is inviting landowners to suggest sites that we could consider for development. This will help us develop our forthcoming Local Plan 2031 Part 2, which will allocate sites for housing, and consider new land for retail development and other uses.

If you know of a site in Vale of White Horse that you think could be developed between now and 2031, let us know by 22 July 2016. For more information, please visit www.whitehorsedc.gov.uk/localplan or contact us my email on planning.policy@whitehorsedc.gov.uk

U's chairman increases his stake to 84 per cent

OXFORD United chairman Darryl Eales has strengthened his commitment to the club by buying out departing fellow director Ian Lenagan's shares this week.

Eales, who has been chairman since 2014, purchased the balance of former United owner Lenagan's shares, with Lenagan stepping down from the board with immediate effect.

Lenagan, who has been involved with the U's since 2006, will become chairman of the Football League this summer, and as a result, must end his involvement with the club.

Eales now owns 84 per cent of the shares, with fellow director Peter Lee continuing to hold five per cent. The balance of 11 per cent is held by about 500 small shareholders.

The chairman told the club's website: "I am delighted to increase my stake in the club, allowing Ian to take up his new post."

"I'd like to congratulate Ian on his appointment and wish him well for the future."

He added: "Oxford United have benefitted enormously from his experience, his planning and his financial support over the last ten years and, on a personal level, I'd like to thank him for his friendship and help over the last two years."

By Dominic Thomas

"The last two seasons have been a wonderful experience, especially the last 18 months.

"I am very proud to be chairman of this football club and I believe the bond between the board, the coaching staff and the fans is an important factor in our success."

Speaking of the timing of his takeover following the club's promotion, he said, "Ian's new role has led to the purchase of his shares a little earlier than we had originally planned but, as we approach our first League One campaign for many years, I think we can look forward with justified optimism and confidence"

Lenagan, who is also owner of Super League rugby team Wigan Warriors, said in a statement: "I have no choice but to divest my shares in Oxford United in order to take up the position as independent chairman of the Football League for the next three years.

"However, I do it with delight firstly to see Oxford United promoted to League One and, secondly, to see Darryl Eales acquire the shares.

"This shows Darryl's increased investment in and commitment to Oxford United whilst ending with emotion 10 years of formal Lenagan family involvement in Oxford United. Both my sons and I look forward to continuing to support the club whenever possible."

Oxfordshire well beaten by Cornwall in season opener

OXFORDSHIRE CCC were comfortably beaten by Cornwall CCC inside three innings in their league opener on Sunday – their rival's first win by an innings since 2005.

Cornwall batsman Brad Wadlan got within four runs of their 78-year-old individual record with a knock of 191, in a highly impressive performance.

In the first innings Lloyd Sabin got two maidens in 15 overs, and Luke Ryan bowled Tom Hughes out for a duck in the best of Oxfordshire's bowling, as Cornwall set a benchmark of 349.

Jonathan Cater led Oxfordshire's batting with five fours from 48 balls for a total of 32.

But it didn't help much as Oxfordshire were bowled all out for a lowly 144.

They were put in to bat again and George Munsey then hit six fours for a total of 48 before being caught and bowled by Libby in the second innings.

His total was equalled by Cater who managed four fours and a six before Oxfordshire were again bowled out cheaply for 146, meaning Cornwall won by an innings and 59 runs, topping the first league table of the season.

Technical troubles for Smith

OXFORD MotoGP rider Bradley Smith's weekend came to an unfortunate end in Catalunya after withdrawing six laps in due to a technical issue with the engine.

The Monster Yamaha Tech3 rider began the race from the fifth row of the grid and had a solid start after taking the outside line into the first turn.

However he dropped to the back of the field with an issue and despite his best efforts was forced to retire a few laps later.

The result leaves him 12th in the championship on 29 points, and marked a disappointing end to the weekend for Smith, who will seek to bounce back at the Dutch Grand Prix in a fortnight's time.

"It goes without saying that this is quite an upsetting way to finish the Grand Prix," said the 25-year-old.

"As soon as we began, I noticed that something wasn't right with the bike, even though I didn't know immediately what it was.

"We'll work out the issue and then start again with testing. Nevertheless, I am certain that we can get right back to where we need to be at the next round."

Oxford RL pick up first win in difficult season

SOARING temperatures made for a feisty derby between Oxford RL and Hemel Stags on Sunday.

In a game that resulted in two sendings-off and a sin-binning, Oxford managed to keep their cool and run out as eventual 24-18 winners.

The result gave the Blues their fifth consecutive win over the Stags and crucially their first points of the league season.

The Blues' opening try came with a precision cross-field kick from Danny Allan, caught in full flight by Joshua Nathaniel who danced through the Hemel defence to score, with Allan converting.

The Blues then lost Daniel Igbinedion to a sin-binning for involving himself in a fracas, before Sidaqi Adebiyi's shoulder injury ruled him out of the game.

By Dominic Thomas

The Blues then crossed the whitewash with Burnett and Nicholson but both attempts were chalked off by the referee.

It seemed neither team could alter the scoreboard until Casey Canterbury scored under the sticks, after strong running from Igbinedion in the 36th minute, with Allan again converting.

The momentum continued with a try from back Andrew Hoggins and more extras from Allan.

Hemel's Mike Stewart lashing out at Jordan Siddons then earned him a red card, along with Blues replacement Jack Smith, who also reacted.

Hemel sneaked in their first try from Lloyd Jones which was successfully converted just before half-time.

In the second half a couple of Blues errors gifted the Stags good field position, resulting in a try from centre Kam Pierce Paul, and a successful conversion by Swindells.

The Blues then hit back with a successfully converted try from Marcus Brooker.

A rattled Blues defence then let Aaron Hall nip in to take the final score to 24-18.

Grainger looks set for Rio heartbreak

FOUR-TIME Olympian and London 2012 gold medallist Katherine Grainger looks set to miss out on selection for the Team GB rowing squad for the 2016 Rio Olympics.

Grainger, 40, and former double-sculls partner Vicky Thornley, 28, decided to focus on the women's eight, but both failed to win places last month.

British Rowing are set to announce their full squad later today, with the six-time world champion and Oxford Brookes Chancellor's inclusion looking unlikely unless a decision is made to reform the double-sculls pair.

In a statement, British Rowing said: "Selection in sport is always an emotive issue, never more than in Olympic year."

"British Rowing is confident that the process that we have followed for both Vicky Thornley and Katherine Grainger has been appropriate."

"They were clearly disappointed with their performance in the women's double scull at the European Championships in early May."

"Whilst we had not lost confidence in them and felt they were still a potential medal boat they asked to be considered instead for selection to the women's eight, which is already a proven medal winning combination."

"We opened up a process and gave them the opportunity. They have not been successful and we are now looking at next steps in a selection process which is ongoing."

• Canice Carroll

Taste of international honours for Carroll

OXFORD United's defender Canice Carroll has become the latest United player to receive international honours after representing Republic of Ireland under-18s.

Carroll played a full 90 minutes in a 3-1 win over Hungary at the U18 International Tournament on Thursday, before missing out on their loss to hosts Sweden with a slight calf injury.

He joins United's international brigade of Callum O'Dowda, receiving his first senior cap for Ireland, Benji Buchel at Liechtenstein and Max Crocombe who is with the senior New Zealand squad.

Carroll told the club's website: "It was a little bit frustrating but it was another fantastic experience, just being part of the set up, playing against different teams in Europe."

Although born locally, Carroll qualifies for Ireland through his father Liam.

He added: "My dad's family are Irish and I know my family are very proud to see me wearing the green shirt."

The versatile defender, who joined the club at 14, said seeing the likes of 21-year-old compatriot O'Dowda help secure promotion has spurred him on.

Brighton clash

FOOTBALL: Oxford United will take on Brighton and Hove Albion in the latest pre-season friendly to be announced by the club.

The U's will host the Championship play-off semi-finalists at the Kassam Stadium on July 26.

It comes after United recently announced a tie with Premier League champions Leicester City for July 19.

Other friendlies have been scheduled against Solihull Moors, Bath City, Barnet and Dorking.

Final defeat

DARTS: Oxfordshire county darts player Deta Hedman lost a second final in the space of a week to Lisa Ashton as she was beaten 5-3 in the Women's BDO International Open Singles.

Hedman beat Tammy MacKenzie, Sarah Chick, Maggie Sutton and Trina Gulliver on her way to the finals at Brean Sands in Somerset.

But she was unable to overcome Ashton once again on Sunday, having previously lost to her in the final of the BDO World Trophy on May 30.

Eddie misses cut

GOLF: It was another disappointing showing for Abingdon golfer Eddie Pepperell last week, as he missed the cut for the second week in a row.

Rounds of 77 and 71 at the Nordea Masters in Sweden meant he ended Friday in a tie for 108th place, and did not progress to the weekend's play.

The tournament was won by England's Matt Fitzpatrick, who ended Sunday on 16 under par.

Plato sees return to form after hat-trick of podiums

THREE third-place podiums from Jason Plato helped Silverline Subaru BMR Racing record their best results of the season by far.

In the first race, Plato battled with Honda's Gordon Shedden to eventually take third and complete a double-podium alongside team-mate and race winner Colin Turkington – the team's first podiums of the championship.

For race two, Turkington held off Plato for second place, making it another double-podium for Subaru.

The reverse grid in race three saw Plato line up ahead of his team-mates in fifth, and clinched his hat-trick of third-place finishes with a last gasp pass at Lodge Corner.

Silverline Subaru BMR Racing also picked up the Team Trophy for the weekend, received by the Subaru UK's managing director Paul Tunnicliffe.

"What a fantastic weekend for everyone at Silverline Subaru BMR Racing," said Plato.

"We should be enormously proud of our successes at Oulton Park."

"We really have arrived in some style. The future is very bright for us all and I can't wait to get back in the car for Croft."

The next races are at Croft in Yorkshire on June 19.

Stars roster shaping up

OXFORD City Stars have signed three returning players in preparation for their assault on next season's NIHL campaign.

Brothers Josh and Ben Ealey-Newman have penned deals alongside netminder Tom Annetts.

Annetts joined Stars in the middle of last season to guard the goal at Oxpens Road.

He came from English Premier League side Bracknell Bees and is hailed as one of the best in the division, posting a save percentage of .895 for Oxford.

Annetts said: "I didn't really know what to expect with the standard of hockey in this division but I'm really impressed with quality of some of the players around the league and in our team."

"I have been pretty busy this summer with the birth of my second son, but I'm now itching to get started and bring the boys to support the Stars in September."

Stars head coach Simon Anderson said Annetts was instrumental in making Stars the team they became to finish fourth and called him "the best goalie in the league".

Forward Ben Ealey-Newman, 19, is back on side for the Stars in a bid to add to his points tally of 20 goals in 35 games last season.

He also took 48 penalty minutes and has been working on fitness for September.

Anderson called him a "must sign" gritty attacker who was "outstanding" for Stars last season.

He will be joined by Josh Ealey-Newman, who is aiming to emulate his older brother's first season for Oxford.

The 17-year-old scored twice in his 16 appearances for Stars last season. He was on a two-way contract also playing for London Racers in the league below, notching 20 goals and 31 assists in NIHL2.

Three wickets fall quickly for no runs as Bledlow take victory Seven-ball spell costs Didcot dear

THREE wickets in the space of seven balls cost Didcot Cricket Club dearly as they fell to defeat against Bledlow Village on Saturday.

Didcot's all out score of 160 was not enough as Bledlow reached 163-6 in reply after 45 overs.

Batting first, Didcot reached 25 runs before losing their first wicket, as Ian Demain was caught by Harry Bartlett for 11.

But a miserable seven-ball run saw Elliot Matthews, Karl Johnston and Thamindu Wedatilake dismissed in quick succession, having scored no runs between them.

Opener Simon Pritchard followed soon afterwards as he was caught for 26, before Didcot were able to get some more runs on the board.

The partnership of Connor Morrison (36) and Aiden Kammler (28) got Didcot back into the match, getting to 110-7 before they were both caught.

And Robert Keat (6), Jordan Morrison (24) and Andy Griffiths (11) closed out the innings as Didcot finished on 160.

Bledlow made a good start to their session with the bat, with Olly Woodward (25) and Tom Moore (24) getting some early runs on the board to get them to 60-2.

Will Woodward wasn't able to make a contribution in his 22 balls before he was caught by Kammel, while Harry Bartlett added 31 until he fell.

Two quick wickets followed as Matthew Bolton went for 12, before Sam Mudie was dismissed for a duck after just two balls.

But James Hawkes (29, not out) and Marcus Goodchild (17, not out) produced a solid partnership to get Bledlow over the line, as they finished on 163-6 to take the win.

The result leaves Didcot fourth in division three of the Cherwell Cricket League with 73 points, 13 shy of next-placed Great Brickhill.

Their next game is away to Tiddington on Saturday.

U's chairman increases his stake

OXFORD United's chairman Darryl Eales has taken over the shares of long-serving director Ian Lenagan, who has stepped down from the board.

Eales acquisition takes his shareholding in the club up to 84 per cent, while Lenagan is set to become chairman of the Football League this summer.
